On joining the City of Bath Heraldic Society ("the Society") the membership application form you complete contains your personal data. In the UK, data protection is governed by the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) which came into force on 1st January 2021 and the Data Protection Act 2018 to safeguard how personal information is used by organisations. This privacy policy will explain how the Society uses and protects the data you provide to us when you join.

We reserve the right to change this policy at any time, of which you will be promptly notified.

We are committed to keeping your data confidential. We will not lease, sell or distribute your personal information to any third parties.

Your personal data is and will only be used by the Society to enable us to provide you with your member entitlements, e.g., Society news, updates, programme of events and to invite you every year to renew your membership.

We hold the following personal data:

- Name and title
- Address
- Phone number
- Email address
- How and when you pay your membership subscription

The Society website, which can be accessed online, does not contain our database of members' details.

As a member you can request, verify, change, remove or delete your personal data, which is your right under the UK GDPR, at any time by contacting the membership secretary who must reply to you within 30 days.

Our website contains links which lead to other websites. Visiting these websites is not governed by this privacy policy agreement. Make sure you read the privacy policy documentation of the websites you visit via these links.

To confirm that you have read and agree to the above, please sign the bottom of this letter and return with your membership application form to the membership secretary.

Thank you and we look forward to welcoming you to the City of Bath Heraldic Society.

I hereby consent to my personal data being held by the City of Bath Heraldic Society as required by the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) for the purpose of electronic and written communication to keep me informed of Society events and news. I understand that I may cancel this consent at any time.
